Due to an apparent oversight during the scanning process, no copy of the original declaration filed 21 August 2001 is currently present in the Image file Wrapper of the instant case. Applicants are requested to supply a copy with their response, for completeness of the record.

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-12, in the paper filed 23 May 2003 is acknowledged.

Claims 13 and 14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Election was made without traverse in the paper filed 23 May 2003.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Folena-Wasserman et al. (A, newly cited).

Claim 1 is drawn to a method of introducing an organic molecule into one or more cells comprising passaging supernatant in contact with the cells in a reaction vessel, providing supernatant with the organic molecule, and passaging said supernatant with the cells in a fluidzed or semi-fluidized bed, wherein the flow is controlled to allow uptake of said organic molecule.

Claim 12 further recites that the supernatant is passaged plural times.

At the paragraph bridging columns 11 and 12, it is taught that CHO cells may be cultured on a fluidized bed, with continuous perfusion of the medium, which contain organic molecules which the cells take up, including glucose and methotrexate. The continuous perfusion of the medium inherently would have resulted in recycling of the medium, hence plural passaging of the medium.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, and therefore 2-12 which depend therefrom, recites "comprising" in the second line and "comprises" in the third line. This makes unclear whether the recited portion of the claim between these conjunctions is part of the preamble or an actively recited process step. As such the metes and bounds of the claim are not defined clearly.

Regarding claims 3, 4, 8, 9 and 11, the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claim 7, the phrase "preferably" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).
